

Moriah College invites outstanding individuals to apply for the position of:

HEAD OF LITERACY (HIGH SCHOOL)

LATE 2020 / EARLY 2021 START

We are seeking an experienced educator to enhance literacy skills across the High School and raise some of the standards of literacy across the curriculum, with a particular focus on Years 7-10.

The successful candidate will primarily be responsible for:

- working cross-faculty with the relevant Heads of Department and Assistant Heads; and their staff, to embed quality literacy instruction and outcomes into their scopes and sequences, and curricula;
- further embedding data collection tools to enable the College to track students' progress in literacy, Years 7-10; and
- lifting the standard for the 'middle of the bell curve' students.

To be considered for this role, you will have an ability to:

- develop and pursue a strategic vision for the role that is clear, setting achievable and compelling goals;
- take responsibility for ensuring the consistent quality of teaching and learning across all High School faculties;
- ensure that all have high expectations for all learners;
- be an inspirational classroom practitioner;
- have highly developed interpersonal and communication skills; and
- be a proactive, positive role model for other staff.

All appointments will be based on merit selection without reference to the religion of applicants.

An empathy with the ethos of our Modern Orthodox Jewish Day School is essential.

Expressions of interest are now being invited for this exciting position.

Please e-mail expressions of interest to jobs@moriah.nsw.edu.au by 2pm on Friday 10 July 2020 outlining your suitability for the role.
