

Expressions of Interest

Primary School teachers (Casual)

Moriah College invites qualified and experienced casual teachers to join our Primary School.

To be considered for casual teaching positions Moriah College requires educators to meet the following criteria:

- Be passionate about inspiring young people to achieve the best version of themselves
- Have experience in inquiry and/or play-based education and explicit instruction to provide developmentally appropriate, purposeful practice which aligns with intentional teaching
- Utilise positive education and wellbeing practices to guide students to strengthen their relationships, enhance resilience, promote mindfulness and wellbeing.
- Foster student agency and an effective use of spoken language.
- Maintain a high degree of professionalism.
- Possess well developed collaboration and interpersonal skills with both students and adults.
- Understand educational adjustments required to cater for individual student needs for both high potential/high performing learners as well as those with disabilities.
- Support the Jewish Zionist ethos of the College

All appointments will be based on merit selection without reference to the religion of applicants. An empathy with the Modern Orthodox Jewish Day School ethos is essential.

Any offer of employment will be subject to background checks and child protection screening.

A valid Working with Children Check and proof of full vaccination is essential.

Application process:

To apply for this position, you will need to be an Australian Citizen/Resident/have a current Australian Work Visa.

In your application, please include a cover letter, your CV and two referees and forward to jobs@moriah.nsw.edu.au

If you have any questions, please email jobs@moriah.nsw.edu.au

Moriah College provides a dynamic working environment where staff are valued and students are committed to learning. Moriah College is a modern Orthodox Jewish Day School with a tradition of strong academic results.