Classroom Teacher in the Primary School Maternity leave with potential for permanent ongoing

An opportunity has emerged for a dynamic and engaging classroom teacher, with the skills to design a rich, inspiring and targeted learning environment for students of all abilities in middle to upper primary, and establish the critical foundation for future Primary School learning.

This role will be responsible for the delivery of a vibrant, literacy, numeracy and inquiry curriculum that considers dynamic student data and student needs.

This is a 12 month maternity cover position with the potential to be permanent ongoing.

The successful applicant will:

- Design high quality teaching and learning programs that are differentiated to meet students needs and are engaging.
- Have experience in inquiry and/or play-based education and explicit instruction to provide developmentally appropriate, purposeful practice which aligns with intentional teaching.
- Utilise positive education and wellbeing practices to guide students to strengthen their relationships, enhance resilience, promote mindfulness and build wellbeing.
- Foster student agency and an effective use of spoken language.
- Possess well developed collaboration and interpersonal skills with both students and adults.
- Demonstrate capacity and experience to respond to contemporary research, trends and initiatives in education.
- Demonstrate a willingness and passion to participate in the co-curricular life of the College.
- Understand educational adjustments required to cater for individual student needs for both high potential/high performing learners as well as those with disabilities.

All appointments will be based on merit selection without reference to the religion of applicants. An empathy with the Modern Orthodox Jewish Day School ethos is essential.

Any offer of employment will be subject to background checks and child protection screening.

A valid Working with Children Check and proof of full vaccination is essential.
