

Moriah College
בית ספר הר המוריה

Moriah College invites high performing educators to apply for the following position:

Coordinator of Transition and Inclusion Support

An opportunity has become available to coordinate the transition of students and develop and implement inclusive programs and processes for Early Learning to Year 2.

The successful applicants will possess the following knowledge, skills and attributes:

- Have demonstrated experience in teaching students with additional needs, abilities and disabilities with respect to early intervention
- Must be accredited as a teacher with NESA
- Have a working knowledge of NCCD and NDIS
- Minimum of 5 years' experience working with early years children and identifying and supporting children with additional learning needs, abilities and disabilities
- Strong research and data analytical skills relating to developmental learning disability and ability
- Possess well developed collaboration and interpersonal skills
- Must have a valid NSW drivers licence to be able to visit different College sites
- Demonstrate an ongoing commitment to professional growth and life long learning
- Support the Jewish and Zionist ethos of the College

Successful applicants will have recent experience in working with children across the learning continuum.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

To apply for this position, you will need to be an Australian Citizen/Australian Resident/have a current Australian Work Visa.

Visit www.moriah.nsw.edu.au for an Employment Application Form. The completed Application Form together with a letter of application, CV and two referees should be forwarded to jobs@moriah.nsw.edu.au

No agencies please

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Moriah College provides a dynamic working environment where staff are valued and students are committed to learning

Moriah College is a modern Orthodox Jewish Day School with a tradition of strong academic results