Moriah College invites applicants to apply for the position of:

HEAD OF JEWISH STUDIES (High School)

We have an outstanding opportunity for a passionate and talented educator. This position has prime responsibility for the ongoing leadership, management and implementation of effective Jewish Studies teaching and learning programs that cater to the full range of students at Moriah College.

As the Head of Jewish Studies (High School), you will:

- Ensure that the Jewish ethos of the College is promoted and strengthened through an engaging curriculum and dynamic formal classroom curriculum, teaching and learning activities.
- Strategically design and deliver upon the ongoing development of innovative school-based curriculum initiatives.
- Lead a team of educators to regularly assess and review teaching and learning programs.
- Have at least 5-10 years experience working as a Jewish Life and Learning educator with relevant qualifications and leadership skills (desirable).

The successful applicant will demonstrate the following competencies:

- Demonstrated commitment to the Modern Orthodox Zionist Jewish values and ethos of the College.
- Outstanding classroom practice.
- Strong leadership skills focused on staff development and coaching.
- Ability to build rapport quickly, and sustain relationships across the College.
- Outstanding communication and oratory skills with the ability to engage a vast range of audiences.
- Ability to balance initiative, autonomy, and motivation with collaboration, teamwork and accountability.

Any offer of employment will be subject to child protection employment screening.
