Moriah College invites outstanding individuals to apply for the following full-time temporary teaching position.

Primary School - Classroom Teacher

An opportunity has emerged for a dynamic and engaging classroom teacher, with the skills to structure a rich inspiring and targeted learning environment for students of all abilities in the early years and establish the critical foundation for future Primary School learning.

This role will be responsible for the delivery of a vibrant, literacy, numeracy and inquiry curriculum that considers dynamic student data and student needs.

The successful applicants will:

- Provide high quality teaching and learning programs.
- Experience with play-based education and intentional teaching to provide developmentally appropriate, purposeful practice.
- Utilise positive education and wellbeing practices to guide students to strengthen their relationships, enhance resilience, promote mindfulness and wellbeing.
- Foster student agency and an effective use of spoken language.
- Possess well developed collaboration and interpersonal skills with both students and adults.
- Experience in responding to contemporary research, trends and initiatives in early learning.
- Demonstrate a passion to participate in the co-curricular life of the College.
- An understanding of educational adjustments required to cater for individual student needs for both high potential/high performing learners as well as those with disabilities.

An empathy with the ethos of our Modern Orthodox Jewish Day School is essential.

All appointments will be based on merit selection. Any offer of employment will be subject to background checks and child protection screening.
