PART TIME SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST

We have an exciting opportunity for an engaging, motivated and experienced psychologist to join our Wellbeing team in our High School. The successful candidate will play a key role in the provision of psychological expertise to promote social and emotional wellbeing, positive psychological health, and academic success across (ELC - 12). This role will ideally work 2-3 days per week; however we are flexible for the right candidate.

You will be responsible for monitoring the pastoral care needs of individual students where required and liaising with appropriate members of staff to provide feedback and advice on matters of student welfare. Further, you will provide developmentally appropriate counselling and best-practice interventions for adolescents which aims to enhance their personal, social, physical, and spiritual wellbeing.

The successful applicant will demonstrate the following competencies:

- minimum five years of experience as a psychologist, previous experience in a school is highly desirable however not essential
- experience working as a team member in an adolescent setting
- full registration as a Psychologist with AHPRA
- ability to create and embed age-appropriate wellbeing programs
- an understanding of psychological assessment reports and experience in making recommendations
- experience in counselling adolescents presenting with a range of concerns
- experience in implementing wellbeing programs based on current research and best practice
- experience supporting the social emotional learning outcomes of students in a high school
- Excellent communication, organisation and time management skills.

The successful applicant will need to be supportive of the Jewish Zionist Ethos of the College.

All appointments will be based on merit selection without reference to the religion of applicants. Any offer of employment will also be subject to child protection employment screening.
