Senior Lawyer - Wills and Estates

Established in 1927, David Landa Stewart is a boutique private client law firm based in Sydney with a long history of advising individuals, families and privately held businesses.

Our work is built on long-term relationships, careful advice and practical outcomes, supporting clients and their families in the establishment, maintenance and preservation of wealth across generations.

Our core areas of practice are Estates, Commercial and Property, and Litigation.

We are growing our Estates Team and are looking for a senior lawyer with solid experience in estate planning and the administration of deceased estates.

This role would suit someone with 10+ years' post-admission experience in the area of Wills and Estates who enjoys working closely with clients and their families on thoughtful, technically sound and commercially practical estate planning and estate administration matters.

The successful candidate will have strong technical skills, good judgment, attention to detail and a warm, client-focused approach. Experience with complex wills and testamentary trusts is critical, as is a strong working knowledge of probate, letters of administration and the administration of estates.

We are a small and collaborative firm, so we are looking for someone who is personable, reliable and comfortable taking ownership of matters while also being part of a supportive team.

The role is full time, although we are open to discussing part-time arrangements for the right person.

If you, or someone you know, is interested in joining a boutique private client practice with a strong Estates focus, please contact us - we would be very happy to hear from you.
